

Middle Atlantic Association of Colleges of Business Administration Hospitality Resolution – October 2014

Resolved, the 17th day of October, 2014:

Whereas the membership of MAACBA gathered in New Brunswick, New Jersey for the 64th annual meeting of MAACBA; and

Whereas Dean Vinnie Calluzzo – whose name President Elmore Alexander could not pronounce (where were you when we needed you, Dean DiAngelo?) assembled an excellent, exciting and enlightening program; and

Whereas we broke new ground and learned about the Business of Fashion – how we look, smell, etc., and why it matters; and

Whereas we learned about hemlines and lipstick (thank you, Mary Sheila for your assistance) and that nail polish is the new lipstick; and

Whereas Dean Doom and Gloom Calluzzo, with the help of a few colleagues, convinced us that we all need to think about our next career (and probably soon), but Steve Cosgrove followed shortly thereafter with an uplifting message; and

Whereas we were regaled with excellent food, drink, entertainment and fine venues; and

Whereas Associate Dean Sharon Lydon organized and controlled every detail of our conference with exquisite skill and precision, but could not control Wednesday evening's downpours;

Therefore, be it resolved that the members of MAACBA express their sincere thanks and gratitude to Dean Glenn Shafer and his many colleagues at the Rutgers Business School for their gracious hospitality and flawless execution of the 64th MAACBA Annual Meeting.
